Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-60 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 1, 25, 41, the cited prior art of record fails to disclose a method for processing a substrate /method for forming a dual damascene interconnect comprises the step of etching at least a portion of the dielectric material exposed by a step of planarizing the one or more conductive material to expose the dielectric material/ etching the one or more dielectric layers exposed by a step of planarizing the one or more conductive material to expose the dielectric material/ etching at least a portion of the dielectric material after a step of planarizing the one or more conductive material to expose the dielectric material . The closest cited prior art of Shroff et al (US 6,515,343) discloses a method for processing a substrate comprises the step of etching at least a portion of the dielectric material/layer 108 that is not exposed by a step of planarizing the one or more conductive material 125 to expose a dielectric material 109, the dielectric material 109 has been etched before the planarizing step (fig. 6-fig. 8).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
